Falst. I would it were bed time, Hal, and all well.

Prince. Why? thou owest God a death.

Falst. T'is not due yet, I would be loth to pay him, before his day: what need e I be so forward with him that cals not on mee? Well, t'is no matter, honor pricks me on: yea, but how if honor pricke me off when I come on? how then? can honor set to a leg? no: or an arme? no: or take away the griefe of a wound? no: honor hath no skill in surgery then? no: What is honour? a worde: what is in that word? honor: what is that honour? aire: a trim reckoning. Who hath it? he that died a Wednesday, doth he feele it? no: doth he heare it? no: t'is insensible then? yea: to the dead: but will it not liue with the liuing? no: why? detraction will not suffer it, therefore ile none of it, honor is a meere skutchion, and so ends my Catechisme. Exit.

Enter Worcester, and sir Richard Vernon.

Wor. O no, my nephew must not know, sir Richard,
The liberall kinde offer of the king.

Ver. T'were best he did.

Wor. Then are we all vnder one.
It is not possible: it cannot be
The king should keepe his word in louing vs,
He will suspect vs still, and finde a time
To punish this offence in other faults,
Suppositions, al our liues shall be stucke full of eyes,
For treason is but trusted like the Foxe,
Who neuer so tame, so cherish't and lockt vp,
Will haue a wilde tricke of his ancestors:
Looke how we can, or sad, or merily;
Interpretation will misquote our lookes,
And we shall feed like oxen at a stall,
The better cherisht, still the neerer death.
My nephewes trespasse may be well forgot,
It hath the excuse of youth and heat of blood,
And an adopted name of priuiledge,
A hair-braind Hotspur gouern'd by a spleene:
All his offences liue vpon my head
And on his fathers. We did traine him on,
And his corruption being tane from vs,

We as the sp
